Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

(b) On April 17, 2006, Deluxe's current Chief Financial Officer, Douglas J. Treff ("Mr. Treff"), informed the Company's Chief Executive Officer that he had decided to resign from the Company to accept another employment position, such resignation to be effective as of the close of business on May 5, 2006.

(c) On April 21, 2006, Deluxe announced that Terry D. Peterson ("Mr. Peterson"), age 41, would succeed Mr. Treff as Chief Financial Officer of the Company, effective as of the close of business on May 5, 2006. Mr. Peterson is currently serving as the Company's Vice President, Controller and Chief Accounting Officer, and will retain such positions while he assumes the Chief Financial Officer role. Mr. Peterson will hold the Chief Financial Officer position on an interim basis.

In connection with assuming the additional duties of Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Peterson's base salary will be increased to an annualized amount of $262,000. Other than this salary increase, Mr. Peterson has not been awarded any additional compensation by the Company. In addition, Mr. Peterson and the Company acknowledge that his service as Chief Financial Officer is on an interim basis and that, if such position is later assigned to another individual, with the result that Mr. Peterson would return to his existing positions and base salary, such action would not constitute "Good Reason" for him to terminate his employment and receive benefits under his existing executive severance agreement with the Company.

Mr. Peterson was named Chief Accounting Officer of the Company in March 2005. Mr. Peterson joined the Company in September 2004 and served as director of internal audit until March 2005. From August 2002 until August 2004, Mr. Peterson was Vice President and Controller of the GCS Services Division of Ecolab, Inc., a worldwide developer and marketer of premium cleaning and sanitation products. Before joining Ecolab, Inc., Mr. Peterson held executive finance positions with Provell, Inc. (formerly Damark International, Inc.), a developer of customized marketing programs and services, including Corporate Controller from March 1999 to September 2001 and acting Chief Financial Officer and Controller from September 2001 to August 2002.

Mr. Peterson has no family relationships with any other director or executive officer of the Company. Mr. Peterson and the Company are parties to standard executive severance and equity award agreements to which all senior executives of the Company are parties. Other than those agreements, he is not a party to any transaction with the Company or any subsidiary of the Company. The material terms of those agreements are set forth in forms on file with the SEC.

DELUXE ANNOUNCES NEW CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

St. Paul, Minn.—Deluxe Corporation (NYSE: DLX) announced today that Terry Peterson, 41, will assume the role of chief financial officer on an interim basis effective with the departure of Douglas J. Treff, who has resigned to take a position at another company.

Peterson has been vice president, controller and chief accounting officer of Deluxe since March 2005, a position he will continue to hold. He joined Deluxe in September 2004 as director of internal audit. Prior to coming to Deluxe, Peterson held positions with Ecolab, Provell, and PricewaterhouseCoopers. Peterson received an accounting degree from the University of Northern Iowa and he is a certified public accountant.

“We are very pleased to have someone with Terry’s qualifications on board to assume the interim role and ensure a smooth transition,” said Ron Eilers, chief executive officer. He added, “We also appreciate Doug’s contributions to Deluxe during his five years of service and wish him the very best in his new endeavors.”
