Section 145(b) of the DGCL provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person acted in any of the capacities set forth above against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the

OrangeSoda, Inc. OrangeSoda, Inc. is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada. Under Section 78.7502(1) of the Nevada Revised Statutes, a Nevada corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (except an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person: (i) is not liable for a breach of fiduciary duties that involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of law; or (ii) acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 78.7502(2) of the Nevada Revised Statutes further provides that a Nevada corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if such person: (i) is not liable for a breach of fiduciary duties that involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of law; or (ii) acted in good faith and in a manner that he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the corporation or for amounts paid in settlement to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a Nevada corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (1) and (2) of Section 78.7502, as described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the corporation shall indemnify him or her against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense.

The Bylaws of OrangeSoda, Inc. generally provide for the indemnification of its directors and officers in accordance with and under the circumstances permitted by the Nevada Revised Statutes.

Safeguard Holdings, Inc. Safeguard Holdings, Inc. is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas. Chapter 8 of the Texas Business Organizations Code, or the TBOC, provides that a Texas corporation may indemnify a person who was, is or is threatened to be named in a proceeding if it is determined that such person has conducted himself or herself in good faith and he or she reasonably believed (1) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the corporation, that his conduct was in the corporation's best interests, (2) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests and (3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. Indemnification of a person found liable to the corporation or found liable on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received by him or her, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken in the person's official capacity, is limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding, and may not be made if the person is found liable for willful or intentional misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the corporation. Additionally, a corporation must provide indemnification of the reasonable expenses incurred by a director in connection with a proceeding in which such director was successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of a proceeding in which he or she was a defendant.

The Bylaws of Safeguard Holdings, Inc. generally provide for the indemnification of its directors and officers in accordance with and under the circumstances permitted by Chapter 8 of the TBOC.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) Each undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of the registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of such registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities:

Each undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of such registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, such registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrants relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of such registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrants;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrants or their securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrants; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by such registrant to the purchaser.

(b) Each undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrants pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrants have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, such registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(d) Each undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(e) Each undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

Re: Registration Statement on Form S-4

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as external legal counsel to Deluxe Corporation, a Minnesota corporation (the "Company"), and the subsidiaries of the Company listed on Annex A hereto (the "Guarantors") in connection with a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (the "Registration Statement"), filed by the Company and the Guarantors with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). The Registration Statement relates to (i) the Company's offer to exchange up to $200 million aggregate principal amount of its 6.000% Senior Notes due 2020, which have been registered under the Securities Act (the "New Notes"), for up to $200 million aggregate principal amount of its issued and outstanding 6.000% Senior Notes due 2020 (the "Old Notes") and (ii) the guarantees to be issued by the Guarantors with respect to the New Notes (the "Guarantees"). The Old Notes were, and the New Notes will be, issued under an Indenture, dated as of November 27, 2012 (the "Indenture"), by and among the Company, the Guarantors and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee (the "Trustee").

We have examined such documents and have reviewed such questions of law as we have considered necessary or appropriate for the purposes of our opinions set forth below. In rendering our opinions set forth below, we have assumed the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the genuineness of all signatures and the conformity to authentic originals of all documents submitted to us as copies. In rendering our opinions set forth below, we have also assumed the legal capacity for all purposes relevant hereto of all natural persons and, with respect to all parties to agreements or instruments relevant hereto other than the Company and the Opinion Guarantors (as defined below), that such parties had the requisite power and authority (corporate or otherwise) to execute, deliver and perform such agreements or instruments and that such agreements or instruments have been duly authorized by all requisite action (corporate or otherwise), executed and delivered by such parties. In addition, in rendering our opinions set forth below, we have assumed that all agreements or instruments relevant hereto are the valid, binding and enforceable obligations of all parties thereto, other than the Company and the Guarantors. As to questions of fact material to our opinions, we have relied without independent investigation on certificates of officers of the Company and the Guarantors and of public officials.

Based on the foregoing, we are of the opinion that:

1. The New Notes have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company and, when duly issued, executed and authenticated by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and delivered in exchange for the Old Notes, the New Notes will constitute valid and binding obligations of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with their terms, except as may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally (including, without limitation, fraudulent conveyance laws), and by general principles of equity, including, without limitation, concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing and the possible unavailability of specific performance or injunctive relief, regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law.

2. The Guarantees to be issued by the Opinion Guarantors have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or limited liability company action on the part of the Opinion Guarantors.

3. When the New Notes have been duly issued, executed and authenticated by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and delivered in exchange for the Old Notes, the Guarantees will constitute valid and binding obligations of the Guarantors, enforceable against the Guarantors in accordance with their terms, except as may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally (including, without limitation, fraudulent conveyance laws), and by general principles of equity, including, without limitation, concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing and the possible unavailability of specific performance or injunctive relief, regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law.

The opinions set forth above are subject to the following qualifications and exceptions:

A. Minnesota Statutes § 290.371, Subd. 4, provides that any corporation required to file a Notice of Business Activities Report does not have a cause of action upon which it may bring suit under Minnesota law unless the corporation has filed a Notice of Business Activities Report and provides that the use of the courts of the State of Minnesota for all contracts executed and all causes of action that arose before the end of any period for which a corporation failed to file a required report is precluded. Insofar as our opinions may relate to the valid, binding and enforceable character of any agreement under Minnesota law or in a Minnesota court, we have assumed that all parties seeking to enforce such agreement other than the Company and the Guarantors that are incorporated in the State of Minnesota have at all times been, and will continue at all times to be, exempt from the requirement of filing a Notice of Business Activities Report or, if not exempt, have duly filed, and will continue to duly file, all Notice of Business Activities Reports.

B. Our opinions are subject to the defenses available to a guarantor under applicable law.

For purposes of this opinion letter, "Opinion Guarantors" means Custom Direct, Inc., a Delaware corporation, Custom Direct LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, Deluxe Business Operations, Inc., a Delaware corporation, Deluxe Enterprise Operations, Inc., a Minnesota corporation, Deluxe Financial Services, Inc., a Minnesota corporation, Deluxe Manufacturing Operations, Inc., a Minnesota corporation, Deluxe Small Business Sales, Inc., a Minnesota corporation, Hostopia.com Inc., a Delaware corporation, OrangeSoda, Inc., a Nevada corporation, and Safeguard Business Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation.

Our opinions expressed above are limited to the laws of the States of Minnesota and New York, the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act and the internal laws of the State of Nevada governing private corporations, including Title 7, Chapter 78 of the Nevada Revised Statutes, all applicable provisions of the Nevada Constitution and reported Nevada judicial decisions interpreting those laws, and we express no opinion with respect to the laws of any other state or jurisdiction.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion letter as an exhibit to the Registration Statement, and to the reference to our firm under the heading "Legal matters" in the prospectus constituting part of the Registration Statement. In giving this consent, we do not admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations thereunder.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Dorsey & Whitney LLP
